

The no call list is the best government legislation in recent memory. To weaken these laws would be against public interest. American's are sick and tired of being haranged in our own homes and we won't accept further invasion of our privacy. Stop this nonsense.